

Use Case Model

Use Case	Description
UC-1: Information Page	A user can access the information about the art gallery website, history of art gallery website, and the events of the upcoming art gallery and its location Administrator can update this information, upload new information, new events description.
UC-2: Buy or Sell Arts	A user can buy art pieces from the sales page and can select the quantity required to buy. Administrator has the access the to update the art pieces for selling. Administrator can also buy the art pieces from the artists.
UC-3: Make Payment	A user can use the different payment methods to buy the desired art pieces. Administrator can buy art from the users that are selling the art pieces by making payment through this method.
UC-4: Contact Art Gallery	A user can provide feedback, express concerns, make a complaint regarding the services provided at art gallery website through Art Gallery contact page. A customer service representative can see the complaints and concerns of the users through art gallery contact page and can access them accordingly.
UC-5: Collection Page	A user can see the different art pieces listed on the collection page. Collection Page is only meant to display the art pieces. Users can access this page free of cost. Administrator can remove, add or modify the art pieces on this page.
UC-6: Manage Users	The administrator removes or adds the users. Administrator can modify the permissions of the users. User can be removed for a limited period or permanently by the administrator .
UC-7: Login and Logout	A user login into the system through a password /login page will be promoted when the user clicks on sign in. Once the user has been authorized the access to the art gallery, user can navigate the art gallery website according to the roles. Administrator have access to the login and passwords of every user of the art gallery website.
UC-8: Manage Art Gallery	Administrator have access to the art gallery and manages the amount of art pieces displayed, any information or issues related to the art gallery. Technician manages the art gallery by fixing the concerns related to the art gallery functioning. Technician is responsible for the overall maintenance of the art gallery website.